Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

A new time card will go into effect on the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad soon.
 YESTERDAY was the last day of the public schools until the fall term opens in September.
 The farmers in this neighborhood began to harvest their wheat yesterday.
 In this vicinity the crop is above the average.

SEVERAL carloads of iron pipe for casing the new well at the park, near the Casino, were taken out on the Wheeling & Elm Grove motor yesterday.

ONLY one case was up in the police court yesterday, that of a boy for bathing in daylight, postponed from the previous day. He was let go with a reprimand.

CITY water rents are now due, and if paid before June 30 will be subject to a discount of ten per cent. To accommodate those who desire to take advantage of the discount the office will be open every night this week until eight o'clock.

 dish washer, and Frank Gray, general hustler.

WATER was turned on in the Paxton been repainted and brazed and the basin cemented.

FIFTEEN couples of the Marcella Riding Club, composed of young people of St. Mary's parish schools, in the Eighth ward, gave their annual closing exercises last night, and a fine prodid credit to the pupils and their teachers. The prizes were distributed by Bishop Donahue, who made a felicitous address.

At the Grand House this evening the annual commencement of the public schools will take place, and an attrac-

LOVER AND MONEY GONE.

A Man Who Took His Fiancee's Money to Invest and Then Disappeared, Said to be Dead.

As was mentioned in the INTELLIGENCER the other day the marshal of Delaware has been on the trail of a recent lover who ditched his girl out of a sum of money. Yesterday Francis Fitzpatrick received a telegram from a little town in New York, announcing that his brother, Albert Fitzpatrick, had died at St. John's, Canada. Both men were bottle blowers in Belleaire, but Albert left there suddenly about four weeks ago. While in that city he courted Miss Lena Troll, won her affection and confidence and, as the story goes, they were engaged to be married. Miss Troll had inherited some money from her father's estate, which she managed at times to have loaned, and thus bring her some returns. It seems that recently a loan she had made was paid, and the young lady received $1,311 in one lot. Young Fitzpatrick called upon her, as was his custom, one evening and in the course of their talk she told him of the receipt of the money, and expressed a desire to have it invested where it might yield her further returns. Fitzpatrick was equal to the emergency. He could invest the money, and she finally gave it to him.

The next thing known of the matter Fitzpatrick was gone. He had gone east and the money was supposed to have gone with him. Miss Troll made an affidavit charging him with obtaining the money under false pretenses, and armed with this information and authority to offer $50 reward for his capture with all or a portion of the money Marshal Lohr opened up a correspondence with eastern officers and the young man was located in a small town in New York. But either by advice or from suspicion that he was watched he suddenly left that town as he had left this one.

A watch was kept on his trunk and he was thought to have been located in Buffalo. Another brother is traveling with a show now exhibiting in New York state, and from the description of Albert Fitzpatrick sent the officers in several towns he was arrested at two different places, but was afterwards released.
 These arrests, however, kept Albert posted as to the search for him, and it may be that he got away to Canada.
 No information of his having been sick had been received by the officers, however, nor have they been advised of his exit to Canada, and the telegram to his brother advising him of his death is the only information of that kind known.
 The officers in the east have photographs of the young man, and if he is dead that fact will be easily established beyond any doubt. The marshal does not believe he is dead, and seems to know that he was quite active only the latter part of last week. He may be dead, and whether he is or not it is probable the girl's money is permanently invested.

The enormous reduction made in the price of bread is attracting universal attention. The Wheeling Bakery are selling their many varieties of excellent bread at almost the cost of flour.
 Thousands of families have stopped baking because it is cheaper to buy this bread; then the home is not made un-comfortably warm by the process of baking, and the housekeeper is spared a most burdensome duty. The Wheeling Bakery delivers bread to your nearest grocer almost in time for breakfast.
 A tin seal on every loaf. Always ask for it.

 in a couple of weeks, to wear with coat and vest, until you are ready for your fall suit. If that's not reason enough to buy 'em. You're surely not so blind to your own interests as not to heed the forcible argument we've used in plying them so low, though it's our entire stock of Summer Trousers we're offering, and not a beggarly hand-
